

A–B: reproductive output in one cohort. C–D: equilibrium population model with maintained effective male ratios.

All parameters are illustrative. Population panels assume no immigration and do not establish extinction or field release schedules.